

Leave Wisconsin's No Call List alone. I object to the criteria used in the federal no call list--companies should NOT be allowed to telemarket former customers for up to 18 months after cancellation of services. This was the main source of my telemarketing calls before I signed up for Wisconsin's no call list.